SYMPOSIUM OVERVIEW
This day-and-a-half symposium will highlight a spectrum of new developments and innovative advances in current oncology practice. The faculty — including leading experts from Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and its Cancer Alliance members — will review the technologies and therapeutic approaches to challenging clinical problems, as well as emphasize the supporting science, evidence-based and important research directions.

SYMPOSIUM CO-DIRECTORS:
Richard R. Barakat, M.D., MBA
David G. Pfister, M.D., FACP, FASCO
Leonard A. Kalman, M.D.
Michele Ryder, R.N., MSN, MSHSA
Michael J. Zinner, M.D., FACS
